TO STOP FRAUD™

Fake email impersonating DeWalt offering free Products.

Action fraud have received over 3,500 reports about this scam email.

The email claims to be offering various free products and asks you to click on a link in order to access your free item. However, it is all a scam and the link will take you to a realistic looking website, where the criminals will steal your personal and financial data.

Always report suspicious emails by forwarding them to:

report@phishing.gov.uk

If you think that you may have been a victim of this or any other type of scam, then contact your Bank immediately, which you can do by calling 159 and report it to Action Fraud at www.actionfraud.police.uk or call 0300 123 2040.

DeWalt giveaway scams

Action Fraud has received 3,568 reports about scam emails impersonating home improvement brands, such as Homebase. The emails claim to be giving away various DeWalt products, such as drills and backpacks. The links in the emails lead to malicious websites designed to steal personal and financial information.

HOW TO DEAL WITH SUSPICIOUS MESSAGES

If you have doubts about a message, contact the organisation directly. Don't use the numbers or address in the message - use the details from their official website. Your bank (or any other official source) will never ask you to supply personal information via email.

Spotted a suspicious email? Forward it to the Suspicious Email Reporting Service (SERS) - report@phishing.gov.uk
