"Mystery Box" scam emails

Action Fraud has received over 7,902 reports about scam emails impersonating well-known retail brands. The emails claim to be giving away a "mystery box" containing free prizes. The links in the emails lead to malicious websites designed to steal personal and financial information.

HOW TO DEAL WITH SUSPICIOUS MESSAGES

If you have doubts about a message, contact the organisation directly. Don't use the numbers or address in the message – use the details from their official website. Your bank (or any other official source) will never ask you to supply personal information via email.

Spotted a suspicious email? Forward it to the Suspicious Email Reporting Service (SERS) - report@phishing.gov.uk
