These FAKE Temu emails have been reported over 30,000 times to Action Fraud from across the UK.

TEMU SCAM EMAILS REPORTED 30,000 TIMES

Action Fraud has received 30,000 reports in the last six weeks relating to fake emails purporting to be from Temu, an e-commerce marketplace. The emails claim that the recipient can win free products by completing a quick survey. The links in the email lead to malicious websites designed to steal personal and financial information.

If you have doubts about a message, contact the organisation directly. Don't use the numbers or address in the message – use the details from their official website. Your bank (or any other official source) will never ask you to supply personal information via email.
